Central, Hong Kong

Dear Mr Rey,

Thank you for your letter dated 20 December 2004.

We understand that languages other than Chinese and English, such as French, have been provided as part of the learning and teaching in Hong Kong for a long time. Therefore, they will continue to be offered to students with the needs. The proposed new senior secondary curriculum is flexible enough with space for schools to provide an additional second language.

EMB is still collecting views on the "3+3+4" academic structure reform from the public and various stakeholders. Your views and comments have been noted and will be taken into account in formulating the final recommendations.

Thank you again for your concerns and valuable suggestions.

Yours sincerely,

(Dr S K KWAN)

for Secretary for Education and Manpower
